What we are doing

While our staff is working remotely, we are actively responding to this crisis in a number of ways:

A Community UNITED Panel Series

Many in our community have been impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, and this may be their very first time reaching out for resources. A Community UNITED Panel Series, hosted by United Way of the Black Hills, is a virtual round-table discussion where nonprofit leaders share some of the most pressing needs in our community. The series is streamed LIVE on NewsCenter1's Facebook page, every Friday at 10 a.m. Viewers can also submit questions regarding how they can access services and resources that will be answered by the live panel.

About the Series

As we see more resources and webinars being offered to the general public, we have discovered a need for webinar offerings that cater specifically to nonprofit organizations. We will be hosting a LIVE Facebook webinar series that will feature topics such as, “Protecting Investments for Nonprofit Organizations”, “Charitable Tax Incentives”, “Cybersecurity for Nonprofit organizations” and more. Stay tuned for more details!

Resources for COVID-19

We are committed to helping our community navigate these difficult times. We continue mobilizing resources to lend assistance in a variety of ways.

Our Educational Resources page provides parents and caregivers with tools to help students with online learning, arts and crafts, activities, fitness and more. Additionally, there are links to the five school districts in our region and the help they are providing.
