

United Way of the Black Hills

Need Assistance? Dial 2-1-1

Donate

UPDATE NEWSLETTER: 8/7/2020

Click here to listen to an update message from Jamie Toennies, Executive Director of United Way of the Black Hills

BLACK HILLS READS

COVID-19 GRANTS

EARLY LEARNING INNOVATIVE GRANTS

GRANT RANGE: UP TO $2,000

Quality early learning locations and experiences are vital to our youngest children, ages 0-5, and the COVID pandemic has threatened these experiences.

We are looking for entities to share with us how they are maintaining quality early learning in their community or neighborhoods. Think outside of the box or needs that our youngest learners have during this time and moving into the fall.

APPLY FOR A GRANT TODAY!

TO QUALIFY
entity must be working with youth,
ages 0-5 years and a:

- Non-profit entity
- City/government
- School district
- Faith-based organization
- Library

TO APPLY
go to:

- United Way grant portal at <https://agency.e-cimpact.com/login.aspx?org=44150u>
- Login or register for funds with your entity's EIN number

NEED HELP? contact:

Kayla at Black Hills Reads
kayla@unitedwayblackhills.org
605-343-5872

Resources for COVID-19

We are committed to helping our community navigate these difficult times. We continue mobilizing resources to lend assistance in a variety of ways.

Our Educational Resources page provides parents and caregivers with tools to help students with online learning, arts and crafts, activities, fitness and more. Additionally, there are links to the five school districts in our region and the help they are providing.

For immediate assistance, please dial 2-1-1.

We also encourage you to go our COVID-19 Information page for more resources.